

Preface and Acknowledgments

Part I: The People

1. Muggs and Janet Lorber, the Founders
2. The Staff and Some of Their Stories
3. The Campers and Some of Their Stories
4. Women at Camp Nebagamon: From the Kitchen to the Boundary Waters
5. Nebagamon Parents

Part II. The Site

6. The Land and Buildings
7. Caretakers: The Stewards of Camp

Part III. The Program

8. The Evolution of Camp's Program
9. The Program: Daily, Weekly, and Once-a-Summer
10. Camp Traditions
11. Wilderness Tripping and Some Stories
12. Spiritual Aspects of Camp
13. Singing, Shows, and the Follies
14. Family Camp

15. Other Camps Nebagamon Ran

Part IV. Under the Tip of Iceberg and More Stories

16. Camper Enrollment and Winter Recruiting Trips
17. Food and Food Service People
18. Camper Travel to and from Camp
19. Diversity at Camp
20. The Business of Camping and the Impact of Technology
21. Medical Care and Stories
22. Camp Crises
23. Camp and Village Relations
24. Thorny Issues
25. Hoaxes
26. NebagaDogs
27. Giving Back and Connecting

Part V. Reflections

28. Friendships
 29. Reflections of One Lucky Guy: Nardie Remembers
 30. Three-Quarters of a Century at Camp Nebagamon: Sally Remembers
- Glossary of Camp Words